

Controversy Raging In Great Britain Over Prayer Book Measure

London.—Debate on the new revised prayer book probably will not begin in the House of Commons before the end of June, but controversy over the changes is raging.

The prayer book measure passed the first reading in the House of Commons last week. The measure is the work of a committee of both Houses of Parliament, and is expected to be passed by the end of June. The House of Commons is expected to pass the measure by a large majority.

The principal opponents in the controversy, so far, are the Rev. William Joyce, Home Secretary, who opposes the revision, and the Right Rev. Arthur P. Wood, Bishop of London, who supports it.

The bishop precipitated the argument by circulating a letter to members of Parliament, urging them to support the measure. The Home Secretary announced that passage of the measure would be the first step towards a new prayer book, and that it would be the first step towards a new prayer book.

Some Conservative Members of Parliament questioned the wisdom of the House of Commons' action in identifying itself so prominently with the opposition since it was a cabinet minister.

The bishop, in his rejoinder, asked if the opponents of the measure were trying to drive the Anglo-Catholics out of the Church of England.

"No one," he said, "wants to drive out those who are Anglo-Protestant in their doctrine. On the contrary, they are to be welcomed, and it is your duty as a member of the Church to work and to devote us to work."

"Your present policy, if successful, can only lead to the disruption of the Church of England, and this, I feel sure, no one would desire more than myself."

Discuss Exchange Of Lines

Co-operation Between Phone and Telegraph Service Possible In Alberta.

Edmonton.—A plan is being worked out by the government telephone system and the telegraph companies are at present under consideration, and a conference in connection with the matter was held between W. D. Hobb, vice-president of the Canadian National Railways, and E. Baxter, Deputy Minister of Telephones.

Mr. Hobb is referring the question to the Canadian National Railways, and it is likely that a working agreement will be reached.

Under the proposed plan the wires of the provincial telephone system will be made use of by the telegraph company in certain parts of the province for the transmission of telegraphic messages, while the province will use telegraph pole lines for carrying the telephone lines by way of exchange. A similar arrangement is in operation between the province and the Canadian Pacific Railway telegraphs.

Radium Exempted From Duty

Action Of British Empire Will Greatly Reduce Imports.

London.—The British treasury has decided to exempt all radium compounds from import duty. The decision will greatly reduce the cost of radium to the medical profession in this country.

The exemption will apply to all radium compounds, whether they are used for medical purposes or for other purposes.

Farm Workers Scarce

Demand In Northern Alberta Exceeds Supply In Report.

Winnipeg.—The influx of immigrant farm workers has been well covered, and in northern Alberta there is scarcely enough farm help to meet the demand, according to J. H. McGowan, western manager of the colonization department of the Canadian National railways who returned here on a tour of the west.

He estimated that well over a million acres of new land will be cleared and brought under the plow this year in northern Alberta and northern Saskatchewan.

New immigrants, he said, were being used extensively in this work.

No Opposition From Britain

But Chinese Troops Must Not Enter Legation At Peking.

London.—The British government has no intention to offer any opposition to the advance of the Chinese Nationalist army into Peking, Godfrey Lockyer-Lampson, under-secretary for foreign affairs told the House of Commons.

Mr. Lockyer-Lampson said that the government's only care was to see that these troops did not enter the legation quarters.

ADVOCATE PLAN OF INSURANCE FOR UNEMPLOYED

Committee Of House Of Commons On Industrial And International Relations Endorsed The Principle Of Unemployment Insurance Based On Compulsory Contributions By The State, The Employers And The Employee In Its Report Tabled In The House.

The report states that the necessity for providing some method of unemployment insurance, "will inevitably have to be dealt with before long as a solution in part of the industrial problem of the present day."

The report indicates that the necessity of unemployment insurance depends upon several of the provinces being willing to act simultaneously.

It is of the opinion that the matter should be referred to the provinces to find out the extent to which they will be willing to adopt legislation respecting unemployment insurance, and to what extent they will be willing to go.

The committee, experienced difficulty in arriving at approximate costs of unemployment insurance, because there was no definite method of ascertaining unemployment at any given point for any length of time.

The committee recommended that the government immediately devise some means whereby the amount of unemployment could be ascertained at any given point of a year could be reasonably calculated.

The committee also recommended that the government secure from Great Britain advice on the subject, and that the subject be dealt with further by the committee at the next session of parliament.

Amendment Defeated

Anti-Dumping Move Lost By Large Majority In House.

Ottawa.—A Conservative anti-dumping amendment to supply was defeated in the House by a vote of 10 to 59. The amendment was moved by R. A. Anderson (Huron, Ont.), and was that the government should take necessary action effectively to control the importation into Canada of natural products of one class or kind produced in Canada, under conditions that operate to the detriment of the Canadian producers.

A. W. Neill (Independent, Ontario, Albert), voted with the Conservatives, while the Progressives and U.P.A. voted with the government.

Sending Observers To Geneva.

Washington.—While the United States has declined an invitation to participate in the eleventh international labor conference at Geneva beginning May 30, it is learned that both the United States government and the American Federation of Labor will send judicial observers to watch proceedings.

Defendant In Curio Action, Chalmers New Evidence Discovers.

Toronto.—Appeals from the verdict of the grand jury at the Curio case, which resulted in a verdict against Arthur Curio, commander of the Canadian corps in France, 1900, were heard by the court today. The Canadian corps was about 4,300 men.

One of the chief grounds of Mr. Preston's appeal is contained in a statement that new evidence had been discovered. He claims that an order was issued to the respective units of the Canadian corps about 4:30 p.m. November 10, 1918, that operations would be concluded and "institutes to stop this evil, since many members of the local Soviets are many."

Other grounds include the assertion that the judge mis-directed and misled the jury, that certain evidence was erroneously excluded, and that the judgment was contrary to the weight of the evidence.

Mr. Preston and Mr. Wilson filed separate notices of appeal.

Ask Higher Tariff On Dairy Products.

Findings Of U.S. Commission Not Yet Submitted To President.

Washington.—The tariff committee's recommendation on milk and cream duties has not yet been submitted to the president. The Canadian Press learned two weeks ago that the findings of the commission which recently investigated the cost of production in Canadian dairies, were ready for the White House, and it was understood that an increase in the duties would be recommended.

The farmers' co-operatives, who claim to represent 161,000 farmers in this country, asked for upward revision of the tariff on practically all products of the farm, except grain which they already have a prohibitive tariff in most cases they ask, in their resolution addressed to Congress, about 100 per cent. increase in the existing duties.

Wilkins Hopes To Locate Suitable Base For Meteorological Station.

Toronto, Nov. 17.—Captain George H. Wilkins, commenting on Spitzbergen's place in the future of Arctic airways, said: "It likely will be the self-way house between Chicago and China."

Wilkins said, in discussing his plans for an Antarctic expedition, that he hoped to make an aerial camera survey of the coasts of the Ross Sea to Graham's Land for the purpose of locating a suitable base for a meteorological station. Such a station would be of great importance in forecasting the weather for Australia, South America and Southern Canada.

Mr. H. J. Manion (Conservative, Fort William), was given permission at the outset of the sitting to make a statement in respect to the casual employment of his name by Mr. Colewell.

"I wish to state emphatically that in the time I was acting as minister of immigration in July, 1920, I personally issued no permits to anyone and no permits were illegally or irregularly issued to anyone by Mr. Manion declared.

"In fact no permit of any kind was issued to anyone, not wholly without the knowledge and consent of me, so that we became able to do so."

Dr. Manion emphatically denied that he had communicated, in any way, with Mr. Colewell, or that he had any knowledge of the number of permits issued by him. He said that Mr. Colewell would agree with him in this statement.

THAT WEDNESDAY HALF HOLIDAY

The petition of a number of business men of Bassano presented to the Council requesting that the town adopt a Wednesday half holiday during the summer months. The by-law is now being advertised, and if no worthy objection is raised it will be passed and come into effect at once.

The Wednesday half holiday scheme has our support, and we hope it is adopted. It will be a boon to both employers and employees and provide a welcome break in the long week—a one afternoon of relief from Monday morning to Saturday midnight is indeed a long week, and employees deserve the half holiday, especially during the summer months.

The farmer, may, at first, suffer a little inconvenience, but after it has become an established practice little, if any, difficulty is anticipated.

The half holiday is a success in other farming communities, and it should be a success in Bassano.

SCIENTIFIC FARMING

James Murray, district agriculturist, of Medicine Hat, has written a brief treatise on the value of the summer fallow. Mr. Murray says that some farmers, after their experience with the 1927 crop, have decided to discard the summer fallow. This, says the district agriculturist, is a fatal mistake, and he goes on to explain the great value of the fallow in conserving moisture for the next year's crop, thus ensuring a fair yield with the minimum amount of rainfall.

Mr. Murray states that long experience and wide observation in southern Alberta support the statement that good summer fallow is at the basis of successful, profitable wheat growing over a series of years. Crops grown on stable land are sometimes more profitable, but they are frequently grown at a loss and cannot be relied on.

Mr. Murray is an authority on agriculture in southern Alberta. His statements are based on years of experience and observation, and wise and successful farmers are following his advice.

THE REBEL

(by Terry Hatten)

Beating all day at the busy keys, And marshalling figures, in rows, Debating purchases, crediting sales, Discounting provisions and clothes.

Sitting all day at a miserable desk, With fifty more doing the same, And the road outside, where the traffic goes by, Like a flickering, beseeching flame.

God! I am sick of the office routine, Sick unto death of the rut, Tired of being a cog in the wheel (And receiving a salary cut).

I want to get out, to go drifting again— To forget about ledgers and files, And search out a road that winds through the hills, And follow it miles and miles.

I long for the roar of a strange city's streets, For the stars on the desert at night, The laugh of a girl in a Mexican town, Or a Barbary waterfront fight.

I hear the road calling, I know I'll be gone When the spring skies are turning to blue, The typewriter, dictaphone, buzzer, and books!

You're welcome to take them—I'm through!

Newest Sergeant Story

An Irish drill sergeant was instructing some recruits in the mysteries of marching movements and found great difficulty in getting a countryman of his to halt when the command was given.

After explaining and illustrating several times he approached the recruit, stood him up steadily for a couple of minutes, and then demanded his name.

"Casey, sir," was the reply.

"Well, Casey, did you ever drive a mule?"

"Yes, sir."

"What did you say when you wanted him to stop?"

"Whoo."

The sergeant turned away and immediately put his squad in motion. After they had advanced a dozen yards or so he bawled out at the top of his lungs: "Squad halt!"

"Whoo, Casey!"

There, and More Tears

Husband (going to rich uncle's funeral): "Put a couple of large handkerchiefs in my pocket, dear. The old gentleman promised to leave me $15,000, and I shall want to shed some appropriate tears."

Wife: "But, suppose when the will is read, you find he hasn't left you anything?"

Husband: "In that case you had better put in five."

A Triumph of Engineering Genius!

UNDERLYING the smart styling of Pontiac's Fisher-built bodies, you will find the master touches of skilled craftsmen and designers . . . the unmistakable evidence of engineering excellence.

The big, husky Pontiac Six engine—with its GMR "blue-streak" cylinder head, its crankcase ventilation system, its oil filter, air-cleaner, etc. . . . is the result of the skill and experience of Pontiac engineers, plus General Motors' great engineering and research laboratories!

The fuel-pump system (replacing the vacuum-tank) . . . the Lovejoy Shock Absorbers . . . the sure acting mechanical Four Wheel Brakes . . . these too are developments of Pontiac plus General Motors.

General Motors' resources make Pontiac Six a triumph of engineering genius, just as they make it a revelation of six-cylinder value.

WHEAT POOL NEWS

The international wheat pool conference is coming to western Canada this year. It will be held in Regina on June 7, 8, and 9.

This is the third annual conference. The first was held in 1926 in St. Paul, Minnesota. The second conference was held last year in Kansas City, Missouri.

Now the international is coming to Canada. Regina has been selected and the delegates will gather there on June 7th.

This year the conference will not be entirely confined to wheat pool representatives. Other co-operative organizations will be present.

The Sun Maid Grain Growers, a co-op. from California, which has made a phenomenal success, will be represented at the Regina conference.

The great British and Scottish Wholesale Societies, co-operatives that gather supplies from all over the globe for distribution in the British Isles, will have leaders at this gathering.

Australia and United States wheat pools will be represented and also the co-operatives of Russia.

The gathering will be an epoch-making one and the subject of co-operation will be discussed from all angles.

E. R. Briggs, who has been assistant superintendent of the Growers Department of the Alberta Wheat Pool has been appointed assistant secretary. Mr. Briggs has been with the pool since December, 1922. He came to Alberta in 1910, homesteading in the Landau district.

The 70 delegates of the Alberta Wheat Pool will meet in Calgary on May 29th. The subjects to be considered are: the formation of a Coarse Grain Pool, the continuation of the West Pool, membership campaign, and the elevator policy.

Chautauqua at Duchess, June 1, 2, 3, 4

The Canadian Chautauqua is coming to Duchess for a four day run Friday and Saturday, Monday and Tuesday, June 1st, 2nd, 3rd, and 4th. The people of Duchess like Chautauqua program with their variety of music, song, humor, plays, and lectures, and the annual visit of the big brown tent is always anticipated with enthusiasm.

The popular entertaining and educational program Chautauqua brings this year includes some of the best features ever presented on a Chautauqua platform.

The program opens on the evening of the first day, June 1st, with a splendid play, "The Bubble." On the second day the Artists Duo, Lowell Patton, pianist, and Fenwick Newell, tenor, will head the bill afternoon and evening. Geoffrey F. Morgan will lecture in the afternoon on "Success With Ease." Mrs. D. Pirie Boyes has a most interesting lecture "Education or Catastrophe," which will follow the evening program.

The Shewan Concert Company will appear both afternoon and evening of the third day. "Awakening China," a lecture by Dr. Tehri Hersh, will conclude the evening's program. On the afternoon of the last day Amos Seabury, one of the world's most versatile kiddie entertainers, will perform. A company of Hawaiian singers will entertain the audience in the evening.

The Duchess local Chautauqua committee has made extensive preparations for the arrival of Chautauqua and a big attendance is expected this year.
